

Farmers Field Day and Input Distribution Programme at KVK Dibrugarh under TSP of ICAR-NRC Pig on 15/03/2022

ICAR-National Research Centre on Pig on pig has organised and conducted the “Farmers Field Day and Input Distribution Programme” under Tribal Sub Plan (TSP) of institute at Krishi Vigyan Kendra(KVK), Dibrugarh on 15th March, 2022. The programme was organised for the ST pig farmers of different villages of Dibrugarh district. The programme was organised in collaboration with the KVK, Dibrugarh. During the inauguration session of programme, Dr. Dr. Keshab Barman, I/C TSP and Pr. Scientist, detailed the pig farmers about TSP activity of institute and pig feeding. On this occasion the tribal farmers were sensitized about scientific pig farming, pig health, biosecurity measures for ASF disease in pigs and nutritional aspects of pig. The programme was coordinated by Dr. Satish Kumar, Scientist while Dr. Keshab Barman, and Dr. P.J. Das, Principal Scientist were the co-coordinators for the programmes. Under this TSP programme 55 tribal farmers from Sripur, Bordup sologuri, Kacharipather, Pedumoni, Tipling, Dangarpather, knowang villages of Dibrugarh have attended the programme and inputs like 90 quintal (180 bags) pig grower feed, 30 sprayer machines, 30 pairs of gumboots, 30 umbrellas and 5 water pump machines were distributed. The PC of KVK, Dibrugarh, Dr. Diganta Sarma welcomed the farmers and appreciated the efforts of ICAR-NRC pig for the social and economic upliftment of SC and ST community through pig husbandry.

Inauguration programme at KVK, Dibrugarh, under TSP

Addressing the Farmers

Explaining the farmers and Valedictory

Farmers attending the TSP and SCSP programmes

Input distribution to the ST farmers of Dibrugarh

Input distribution under TSP programme for Dibrugarh